

Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program

What is the Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program?

JesusSpokeAramaic.com is, by far, the biggest and best website in the world dedicated to learning Aramaic in the context of the Holy Scriptures. We provide a wealth of resources to help you learn Aramaic, including Aramaic and Hebrew Bibles, a range of DVDs, Audio CDs, Workbooks, Study Guides and books. We have literally HUNDREDS of video lessons arranged in categories including the History & Background of Aramaic, the Aramaic Alphabet, Biblical Aramaic, the Aramaic Peshitta Old and New Testaments, and the Aramaic Targums.

These resources are comprehensive and ideal for those who are self-motivated and self-directed, and who want to systematically study Hebrew and/or Aramaic at their own pace, in their own time, and at reasonable cost.

On the other hand, some people desire to learn Hebrew and/or Aramaic at a much faster pace, under supervision, being motivated, and are able to put in significant time and effort to achieve their goals in a MUCH shorter time period than usual. Other people may have specific needs (such as wanting to learn certain passages of Hebrew and/or Aramaic in the Holy Scriptures) but they do not know how, or do not know where to start, or do not have the resources available to help them.

Other people may be interested in Aramaic, but they also have a strong interest in Hebrew. In fact, over the years we have found that Hebrew and/or Aramaic together are often where people's interests lie. Some start with Aramaic, but then become more interested in Hebrew. Others start learning Hebrew but become more interested in Aramaic. Or maybe your interest lies only in Hebrew, or only in Aramaic - or a combination of the two, with some Modern Hebrew as well!

This is where the Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program can help! If you want to learn Aramaic only, or Hebrew only, or a combination of the two in a blend that you decide, then the Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching program may be exactly what you are looking for. If you need help achieving your goals, or if your goals are specific, and if you are willing to put in time and effort to make faster progress than you ever imagined possible, and if you know what you want to achieve, then we can help!

The creator of this website, Ewan MacLeod, will PERSONALLY work with you to define your goals and desires in connection with either Hebrew or Aramaic (or both). Ewan will understand where you are now in terms of knowledge and experience, then design a highly personalized and custom study program tailored JUST FOR YOU. Ewan will then PERSONALLY work with you to help you achieve your goals. There is nothing like it available, and it may be exactly what you need to attain your dreams and goals. Can you imagine how exciting it is to read the original languages of the Holy Scriptures and truly understand them? This can be a transformational and life-changing experience!

If you choose to participate in this Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program, Ewan will work closely with you each week to give you new resources as and when you need them, even if that means creating resources especially for you, to help you reach your goals, dreams and ambitions faster than you ever thought possible.

Who is the Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program for?

This unique Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program is ideal for you, IF:

- You are highly motivated and will be prepared to commit time to learning Hebrew and/or Aramaic outside of the (usually weekly) sessions.
- You really want to learn Hebrew, or Aramaic, or a blend of both.
- You find the thought of being able to read and understand the Holy Scriptures in the original languages very exciting!
- You most likely have specific areas that you want to learn about - and those could be anything that is specific to you.
- You want to understand specific passages of Scripture.
- You want to learn at the fastest possible pace - days instead of weeks, weeks instead of months, months instead of years!
- You have blockages that currently hinder you, such as feeling that there are areas you do not understand, or you need to work time around other work/life commitments, or you lack certain resources, or you are overwhelmed by the amount to learn, and so on.
- You have lots of questions to which you need answers!

If that sounds like you, then this Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program is exactly what you need, right now, in your journey towards understanding the Word of God more intimately.

The Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program is open to anyone and everyone who fits the above criteria, but in particular:

- Current knowledge is NOT important. Whether you know next to nothing, or you are already very experienced, I will work with you to develop a custom path that takes you from where you are now, to where you want to be - in the fastest possible time.
- Geography is not a barrier. While my geography is limited, yours does not have to be. We will work flexibly over the Internet at mutually agreed days and times.
- Age is not a barrier. This Coaching Program is open for young and old alike. Desire, plus a willingness to learn, is all I need from you!
- Gender is not a barrier. The Coaching Program works for both males and females alike, depending on your individual goals and aspirations.
- Beliefs are not a barrier. This Coaching Program is a non-denominational approach designed purely to learn Hebrew and/or Aramaic in connection with the Bible, and is free of doctrinal bias and sectarianism.
- Background is not a barrier. In fact, I will adapt the Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching resources and material to fit in with your background and current knowledge.

Who is the Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program NOT for?

This Coaching Program is definitely NOT for everyone. That is deliberate.

First of all, my time is limited, so I can only ever work with a very small number of individuals at any one time. The number is limited, and you may need to wait until a slot becomes available. The sessions also need a significant amount of my time behind the scenes to plan and to make customized resources available just for you. My time is limited and does not scale.

Second, to help you advance at the most rapid pace possible, I need you to be motivated and commit time outside of our (usually weekly) sessions. While the Coaching Program WILL help to excite and motivate you, and we can work round whatever time you can commit to, YOU must be prepared to put in effort as well.

Third, there is a significant cost to the Coaching Program and this, unfortunately, makes it unavailable to some people. The cost is dependent on my time, because I spend a lot of time and effort working with people and creating resources for them behind the scenes.

Therefore, if you are not particularly motivated, do not really have a strong desire to learn Hebrew and/or Aramaic, and cannot really commit time to learning, then this Coaching Program is not ideal for you. You will be better served by subscribing to the website and progressing at your own pace in your own time, without me to help. Maybe Coaching would be a better fit for you in the future.

On the other hand, if you are motivated, you know what you want to achieve, and cost is less important than time, then this Coaching program is IDEALLY SUITED to you!

Why Is This Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program So Effective?

In the video on the website, Ewan explains the journey through which he learned Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek.

What you will find is that conventional methods of learning Biblical Languages - such as reading through a Grammar - just don't work, or at least don't work quickly enough for you to see real progress and be motivated enough to keep going. Most people buy a grammar, but it ends up on the shelf, unused (or barely used) for years.

I had this problem too. I made progress, but not in the timescales that I wanted.

But then I found what works... And this revolutionised my progress in learning Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek.

In this video, then, I explain my journey into the world of learning the main Biblical Languages, and how I found methods and approaches that work. This explains why this Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program really works - because I can help you with the same journey that I myself have taken. I will open up to you all the resources I have used in the past, and/or I will create new resources especially for you - depending on what books of the Bible you most want to learn.

And remember - although the primary focus of this website is Aramaic, these methods also work for Hebrew and Greek too. Many people coming to this website are also interested in Biblical Hebrew, and the Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program allows you to leverage both languages together for even faster progress!

So go ahead and watch the video, and see why conventional approaches to learning Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek just do not work - and why this Coaching program is so exciting for those who want to massively accelerate their learning!

What is the difference between Teaching and Coaching?

This Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program is about COACHING, rather than just TEACHING. What is the difference?

Teaching is generally curriculum based. It is run by a teacher who takes students through a designated course. It is, by definition, a one-size-fits-all approach. For some students, the pace will be too slow, and they will get bored and stop. For other students, the pace will be too fast and they will get left behind. Hopefully YOU will fall somewhere in the middle!

By contrast, coaching is tailored, highly customized, and designed for YOUR individual needs. It goes at YOUR pace. It is for YOU, and YOU ONLY. It covers what YOU want, and what YOU need. We will change pace. We will change direction if you want to. Sometimes we will go fast, if you are happy with that. Sometimes we will go slow and cover difficult subjects slowly. We will move on when YOU are ready. But more importantly, we will chart a route through an immense amount of possible knowledge, to find the path that fits you the best. Think of it as safely being led through a maze of possibilities, by someone who knows the maze inside out.

Think of Teaching as being like taking a tour in a boat round the harbor and a mile out to sea, then back, along with all the other tourists. Think of Coaching as being like chartering a sailing boat and a crew, and sailing out to an island or a destination of your choice, having fun, going to another island or city of your choice, staying for a while if you want, or setting sail for another destination - and the journey can last as long or as short as you wish. You can go anywhere, see anything, go at your pace, and you are in full control.

How does the Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program work?

The most effective way of working with you is for us both to commit to a month at a time, so that you can start seeing major benefits as the months go by. You can remain subscribed for as many, or as few, months as you want, and you are free to cancel your subscription to the Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program at any time.

Once I have set you up with your own private area on the website with all your personal resources, we will usually have weekly meetings either over Skype or (better still) via a private Webinar facility that I will make available. That way, we can share screens, talk over the Internet, and it will be almost like being in the same room and sharing a desktop/laptop together.

I will create a goal-oriented personal plan for you over the coming few weeks, and we will work together to achieve that in our weekly meetings. Meetings usually last about an hour or so. I can help you with anything you are finding difficult, we can talk over your goals together, and you will be very motivated and excited to keep going! You will see your dreams and goals being fulfilled in front of you as the weeks go by... And you will love it! The Word of God will open up to you in a way that you never thought possible.

We will start by going through some exercises together which will:

- Explain to you how I learned Hebrew and Aramaic, and why I can make some very unique learning approaches and resources available to you.
- Define exactly why you want to learn Hebrew and/or Aramaic, and what you want to get out of the Coaching Program.
- Define exactly where you are right now, in terms of knowledge, etc.
- Define exactly where you want to be, and what you want to become, in terms of your knowledge of Hebrew and/or Aramaic.
- Define what constraints you have, and what blockages might be stopping you. That could be literally anything - you might lack the motivation or commitment to keep going, you might need someone to teach you, you might have a lack of specific resources, you might not know HOW to progress, you might have too many options and you feel overwhelmed and don't know where to start, you might have too many questions, you might be getting distracted, you might not understand grammar, or you could be struggling with vocabulary, or just about anything else.

Based on defining the above areas, I will create a custom pathway for you through all possible resources that are available. I will create new resources for you if none are available (where possible!). I will create systematic goals for you for the duration of the coaching session and beyond, so that you can start to make progress on YOUR goals in a series of achievable steps. I will work with you closely in future sessions so that you reach goal after goal after goal, in a way that you could never have imagined possible.

In short, I will take you from where you are now in your current knowledge of Hebrew and/or Aramaic, to where you want to be in your ideal world. I will be your guide and mentor as you walk a journey that I have already walked.

I have full access to all the Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek resources in BibleWorks, Accordance, Logos, e-Sword and others, and I will leverage all those (and many more resources) to your advantage.

I can help you learn vocabulary like you have never learned before. I can help you read those ancient Hebrew and/or Aramaic texts of the Holy Scriptures, if that is what you would like to do. You will make progress in a way that you never imagined possible.

And it will all be fun. You will ENJOY doing this, because this is your journey into your heart's innermost desires. You will accomplish what you have always wanted to do.

What happens if things don't work out?

If you feel that things are not working out, and/or the Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program is not what you imagined, you have two options:

- You can cancel your ongoing monthly subscription, but then continue to work with me until the end of the month to get all the remaining benefit.
- You can cancel your ongoing monthly subscription, but also cancel all your remaining sessions for this month. In that case, I will refund any unspent funds on a proportional basis.

Costs

Ewan has worked hard to make the cost of this Private Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program available to more people. But he also wants to work with people like you, individually, long enough for you to see a real difference, and to achieve all the individual goals that you have set for yourself.

To do this, the best way is for Ewan to work with you for a month at a time, on an ongoing basis, until you feel that you have achieved everything that you set out to do. For some people, that may be only a month or two. For others, it may be a long-term commitment that you know will lead to a beneficial relationship lasting years, in which you will truly understand the Holy Scriptures more deeply and intimately than you can ever imagine now.

For these reasons, the best way to take part in the Coaching Program is to commit to a month at a time on an ongoing basis. You can continue for as long or as short as you need to achieve your goals. But rest assured, Ewan will work with you to make sure you attain the maximum possible benefit for the Coaching Program, and you will benefit long after leaving the Coaching Program.

To achieve these goals, the cost is $499 per month, including (from Ewan) all the time you need for him to create the resources he needs to help you, including unlimited emails from Ewan, as well as weekly catch-up sessions including private Webinars, screen-sharing, and many other resources that he will make available to you.

REMEMBER: You can earn yourself a FREE Coaching Package by referring other people!

IMPORTANT NOTE: The Coaching Package includes the following:

- FREE LIFETIME access to the JesusSpokeAramaic.com website (currently worth $499).
- FREE access to EVERY DVD and EVERY CD currently available. We will send these to you by mail to your home address. (This is currently worth around $300).
- FREE UNLIMITED email access to Ewan, personally, to ask questions, for the entire duration of your Coaching Program.
- FREE access to your own special area of the website which Ewan will create specially for you, for all the custom resources that he will make available to you as part of the Coaching Program.

Is there a way to get the Coaching Program cheaper, or even free?

Yes, there is. If you refer just THREE people who take up the Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program, I will give you your Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program for free for as long as they stay subscribed. As a Thank You for bringing in other people, I will give you access to everything, just as if you had paid.

But even if you refer just one or two people who take up the Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Program, I will give you ONE THIRD of their combined number of months. For instance, if you refer one person who stays for 6 months, I will give you two free months. If you referred two people who each stayed for three months, I will give you two free months. Quite simply, I am happy to work with you, in a mutually beneficial way, if you refer people to me. You will be very grateful you did!

Either way, if you refer people, I will work with you in exactly the same way that I work with everyone else. You will get all the same benefits as if you had bought your own Hebrew/Aramaic Coaching Package, meaning that YOU will get FREE LIFETIME ACCESS to the website, PLUS you will be sent every DVD and every CD currently available, PLUS you will get your own special area on the website, and so on.
